PIONEER PARK FOR PLAYGROUND

If Recommendation of Public Grounds Committee Is Approved by Council.

SALOON LICENSE PROTEST

Samuel H. Auerbach Wants a Couple Of State Street Establishments Put Out of Business.

If the recommendation of the public grounds committee is approved by the council. Pioneer park will be turned into a playground for children on the West Side. The committee held a neeting last night at which this acion was taken and it was suggested that the playgrounds association de cide how much of the park is needed and what it will cost to convert the space into a model playground. The two reports will probably be presented to the council next Monday night for onsideration.

The public grounds committee ap-The public grounds committee approved the petition of W. H. Harmon and H. S. Margetts for a 200-foot gravel pit near the Warm Springs. The stakes are to be set by the city engineer and the work to be done with the approval of the board of park commissioners. It is planned to make a public park at the Warm Springs and the work will be done with this end in view.

A fight will be made, however, against this in the council Monday night. When Councilmen Hall and Holley made up a committee report last night it was destroyed by Councilman Wood and Frank Mathews, land and water commissioner. Holley and Hall tore Wood's report up and made another one which they are carefully guarding.

Strange & McGuire will be allowed a Strange & McGuire will be allowed a site for their asphalt mixing plant at Fourth North street between East Capitol avenue and West Canyon road. The grant is to run for one year. There is likely to be a fight on this, however, because some of the councilmen are not willing to make any concessions to Strange & McGuire, who are competing with P. J. Moran, the official contractor, in the paving contracts.

PROTESTS AGAINST SALOONS. Samuel H. Auerbach appeared before the license committee last night and protested against the granting of Patrick Kennedy at 229 south State street, and F. E. Galpin of 304 south

FUNERAL OF MRS. EARDLEY.

Sixth Ward Meetinghouse Crowded With Friends Thursday Afternoon.

held at the Sixth ward meetinghouse

Unusually impressive services were held at the Sixth ward meetinghouse Thursday afternoon over the casket containing the remains of Mrs. Ann Jones Eardley, who died Tuesday of old age. The building was crowded with relatives and old-time friends, who came to pay their last respects to a pioneer who had passed through many of the most trying ordeals incident to the settlement and building up of this state. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

The services, at 2 o'clock, were in charge of Bishop Arnoid G. Glauque. Elder Alexander Burt opened with prayer. Elder James Poulton delivering the benediction. All the speakers spoke in the highest terms possible of the numerous admirable traits and exemplary life of the decedent. The speakers were: William G. Phillips, James Leatham, Hishop William Mc-Millan of the Twenty-eighth ward. William McLachlan, president of Pioneer stake, and Bishop Arnoid G. Giauque. Assisting at the service was a double quartet composed of Louisa P. Giauque, Annie P. Poulton, Pearl Love, Minnie Poulton, Edith Acomb, James Poulton, George Hickenlooper and Albert E. Poulton. Miss Lucile Buttle officiated at the organ. Among the songs offered by the quartet were: "When First the Glorious Light of Truth," "Oh. My Father," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Pallbearers were Edward J. Eardley,

Pallbearers were Edward J. Eardley,

James N. Haslam, Walter J. Sloan, Lester J. Haslam, Raymond Hand-ford and Franklin Eardley. A long line of carriages followed the body to the city cemetery, where appropriate serv-ces were conducted.
